Pediatric Consent to Treatment and Office Policies

I, _____, hereby authorize Jill Doan, Licensed Acupuncturist of To The Point Acupuncture, LLC to administer any style of Oriental Medicine relevant to my child's diagnosis and treatment, included but not limited to the following:

ACUPUNCTURE: I understand that Shonishin is a Japanese form of pediatric acupuncture that does not use insertive techniques. The special tools used for this unique and painless approach to acupuncture are held carefully over the acupuncture point, or brushed gently along the acupuncture pathways over the body.

CHINESE HERBS: I understand that Chinese herbal formulas may be recommended for my child to treat bodily dysfunction or diseases, to modify or prevent pain perception, and to normalize the body's physiological functions. I understand that my child is not required to take these substances but must follow the directions for administration if so decided to take them. I am aware that certain adverse side effect may result from taking these substances. These could include, but are not limited to: changes in bowel movement, abdominal pain or discomfort, and the possible aggravation of symptoms existing prior to herbal treatment. Should my child experience any problems, which I associate with these substances, I should suspend giving them to him/her and call To The Point Acupuncture as soon as possible.

CUPPING: I understand the cupping may be used to promote the circulation of qi (energy) through the meridians. The cups may produce a red/purple color on the area treated lasting for 1-5 days.

I have been informed of the right to refuse any form of treatment. I understand the nature of the treatment, have been informed of the risks and possible consequences involved in the treatment, and have been given an opportunity to ask questions pertaining to the treatment. I also understand that there is always a possibility of an unexpected complication and I understand that no guarantee can be made concerning the results of treatment.
